Pro Foundation Camp

This is for you who has finished your first level ski instructor exams and now want to start working as a pro. or for you who just want to strengthen your skiing technical foundation before the start of the season. This week will be 100% about getting the professional touch, focusing on your basic technique and how to train, work and teach in a skischool.

The teaching will be based on your level, and through exercises and tasks you will improve your ski technique and become the professional look. There will be enough of free skiing and occasionally technical gates where you can challenge yourself as well.

The most of the camp takes place in Sportgastein and we also take a look at the best and trickiest spots for teaching in the rest of the great Gastein ski area, so you do not get stuck when skiing with guests.

You will also learn real life didactics and pedagogical tricks and how to organize your work and team-play!

The training is for everyone, regardless of whether you come to get ready to be a good pro or a just a better pro. The camp runs from 13th to 23th December, but you can arrive as early as Friday 9th.
